

opportunities. This amendment also provides for the exception to land owners within the game refuges using motorized boats to access to their property. The intent of this amendment shall not be construed to limit this access. Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Mr. Clerk, you have an amendment to the amendment.

CLERK: Senator Beutler would move to amend the Janssen amendment, Mr. President. (See page 2610 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR HALL: Senator Beutler, to open on your amendment.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hall, members of the Legislature, this is a minor amendment which is agreeable to Senator Janssen. When we combined a couple of statutes here we eliminated some particular statutes and made one statute, the general statute, applicable to refuge areas with regard to penalties. And in doing so, we should have made, we should have retained the penalty provision that was in the general law, which was a Class III misdemeanor. Instead, it was changed to a Class I misdemeanor which Game and Parks considers too difficult, too hard, and they would prefer to keep the statute that they've always used, which has been useful to them and adequate. And so what this does is simply retain the current law provision of a Class III misdemeanor to the lower class for the violation here instead of changing it to a Class I misdemeanor. So that, what would be, what would pertain is that, is the possibility of three months imprisonment and a $500 fine or both. Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Beutler, on your amendment. Senator Bernard-Stevens to discuss the Beutler amendment.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Janssen, would you yield to a couple of questions?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Janssen, would you respond please.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Janssen, this may be a silly question, if so, just tell me and I'll sit down. But on your amendment, the way it's worded, it talks about to and from, on the dwelling section on the second...
